

TOURS - CLOISTER OF LA PSALETTE

Visit the part-Gothic, part-Renaissance cloisters of Saint-Gatien Cathedral in the city of Tours.

The Cloître de la Psalette, which means choir cloister, was given this name as one of its rooms was used for practising religious chant in the Middle Ages. The architecture of the cloister which adjoins to the Cathedral of Tours is made up of three galleries built partly in the Flamboyant style and partly in the Renaissance style, of the scriptorium, the old bookshop and of the Renaissance staircase.

Please note: the monument may be partially or totally closed in 2021 and the rates changed accordingly. Please enquire before your visit.
