

CHÂTEAU OF CHÂTEAUDUN

The princely residence of Jehan Dunois, faithful companion to Joan of Arc.

Sixty metres above the Loir river, the château of Jehan Dunois, known as the “Bastard of Orléans», contains a rare succession of medieval, Gothic and Renaissance architectural features. The Sainte-Chapelle is home to a remarkable collection of statues. The château also houses an important tapestry collection. The medieval hanging gardens, unique in the Centre region, offer an enjoyable place to relax during your visit.
