

CHÂTEAU OF BUSSY-RABUTIN

The sumptuous residence of an aristocrat in the time of Louis XIV.

The Château is set in a magnificent wooded valley and features a remarkable décor created by Roger de Rabutin, Comte de Bussy. Cousin of Madame de Sévigné and author of the satirical chronicle of the love affairs of the court, Roger de Rabutin lived in exile in his burgundian Château where he wrote his memoirs of the Sun King. Mattos room, drawing-room of the great warriors, King's gallery, portrait of the Kings mistresses and the golden tower are a splendid testament of a famous libertine.

New: visit the newly opened areas in the tour, including interpretation spaces about the figure of the Count and the history of his chateau.

Site with the "Illustrious Houses" label.

Site with the "Outstanding Garden" label.
